Unsurpassed for hardy quick growing screens, wind-breaks, and tall hedges—we use lots of them for these purposes at the Farms. Fall grown, they are magnificent on the lawn or along a drive. A White Pine grove or planting on idle land is a wise investment for future pleasure and profit. You can't go wrong on White Pine!

The larger sizes are right for lawn groups to border a drive, or plant 6 to 10 feet apart for a screen or windbreak. Use the smaller sizes for a dense close clipped hedge or to brighten a shrubbery planting. Will grow well in shade. Has a very strong constitution and no bad habits. Our enormous production makes possible these prices.

At these prices you can plant them in quantities in such locations where their naturalistic habit of growth adds much to the wild beauty of the landscape.

Clipped evergreen hedges are attractive winter and summer.

AMERICAN ARBORVITAE

A GREAT favorite. Clear, deep green feathery foliage tipped with bright green in the Spring. Does well in moist land and partial shade. Exceptionally fine stock. We recommend it especially for border plantings and for clipped ornamental hedges. Single specimens excellent as formal garden accents—planted in the ground or in decorative tubs and urns. Very hardy!

WHITE FIR

HERE is a Fir of the highest class with great decorative qualities. Its long needles, gracefully drooping branches and rare silvery green color give it distinction. Especially effective against the darker Firs and Spruces. The plants offered are in exceptionally fine shape and we enthusiastically recommend them for any ornamental use where a close clipped effect is not desired, as bordering paths and drives, for single lawn specimens and in park and woodland groups.

Height	Each	10	100
6 to 7 feet	18.00	170.00	1600.00
5 to 6 feet	15.00	140.00	1300.00
4 to 5 feet	11.00	100.00	950.00
3 to 4 feet	8.00	75.00	700.00

Ithan, Pa. November 9, 1929
"I was very much pleased with the Arborvitae and Red Pine you sent me recently. They were beautifully packed and arrived in good condition though not received here until November 6th. In the spring we will need foundation planting and possible other plant material."

Vineyard Haven, Mass. May 5, 1930
"The shipment arrived in fine condition. I was more than pleased with the order. With 1 had ordered two lots instead of one. The extra size for the price was surprising."

CANADA HEMLOCK

A most graceful evergreen adapted to many decorative uses. Will grow to a beautiful large tree or can be kept small by trimming. Thrives in partial shade and in cold damp locations. Should have protection from strong drying winds. Very valuable as a foil for the Spruces and Firs in shrubbery and shady side foundation plantings. Use freely for underplanting in woodlands, along streams, and in shaded valleys. Stands almost any amount of shearing.

Height	Each	10	100
3 to 4 feet	5.50	50.00	450.00
2 to 3 feet	3.50	30.00	250.00
18 to 24 inches	2.50	20.00	175.00

This Spruce hedge requires little shearing, looks well the year round.

Here bedded evergreens break the harsh outlines of a wall.

To conceal a garage—use Douglas Fir or White Pine.

ENGLEMANN SPRUCE

A VALUABLE little known Spruce of great beauty. Almost as blue as the Blue Spruce and with denser, lower growing foliage. This makes it one of the most valuable decorative evergreens of the formal type. We heartily recommend these line plants for use as specimens on the lawn, accents here and there in the flower garden and in the foreground of shrubbery plantings. Set in tubs or vases on porch or terrace the effect is positively superb.

Height	Each	10	100
5 to 6 feet	12.00	110.00	1000.00
4 to 5 feet	10.00	90.00	800.00
3 to 4 feet	8.00	70.00	600.00
2 to 3 feet	6.00	50.00	400.00

RED PINE

ANOTHER great Pine, extremely popular. Almost as rugged as the Scotch Pine, but with softer foliage like the White Pine, though darker green in color. Suited to almost any soil and situation. Handsome along driveways, bordering lawns, massed against the sky on hillsides, and, in the smaller sizes, as a foil for other evergreens and flowering shrubs. Wherever you want height, breadth, and stately beauty, plant those twins, White and Red Pine! What better value in permanent satisfaction can you buy at these prices?

Height	Each	10	100
8 to 10 feet	14.00	130.00	1200.00
7 to 8 feet	12.00	110.00	1000.00
6 to 7 feet	10.00	90.00	800.00
5 to 6 feet	8.00	70.00	600.00
4 to 5 feet	6.00	50.00	400.00

COLORADO SPRUCE

A CLOSE cousin of the White Spruce but with a wide variation of color tones ranging from clear green to a silvery blue-green. Probably the finest of the Spruces and like the White Spruce fitted by nature to stand extremes of cold and exposure. Blends well with other evergreens. Little-Tree Colorados are unsurpassed for border, shrubbery and foundation plantings, as ornamental lawn specimens and other decorative uses.—A large pair mark an entrance with splendid effect!

Height	Each	10	100
5 to 6 feet	10.00	95.00	900.00
4 to 5 feet	8.00	75.00	700.00
3 to 4 feet	6.50	60.00	550.00
2 to 3 feet	5.00	45.00	400.00

LIMBER PINE

AN unusual and comparatively little known native Pine destined to be very popular. Long needles of a rare and exquisite blue-green shade are grown closely along plant up curving stems. This evergreen possesses a soft and irregular outline that makes it very valuable as a background for other varieties in border plantings, and lawn groups, combining well with the Colorado and Englemann Spruces, White Fir and White Pine. Order a few and get acquainted with this charming variety.

Height	Each	10	100
7 to 8 feet	10.00	90.00	850.00
6 to 7 feet	8.00	70.00	650.00
5 to 6 feet	7.00	60.00	550.00
4 to 5 feet	6.00	50.00	450.00

Evergreens will conceal a high basement.
